Annual Membership Banquet, Wednesday, May 2

The Charleston Chapter of Sigma Xi invites you to attend our annual membership banquet, Wednesday, May 2 in the Regimental Commanders' Riverview Room, Coward Hall, The Citadel. Dr. Charles Groetsch, Dean, The School of Sciences and Mathematics at The Citadel, will be our speaker. His talk is entitled "Fear of Refrigerators: Some Mathematical Characters, Crackpots and Crazies."

The festivities will start at 6:15 pm with a reception. In addition to sparkling white grape juice punch, a cash bar serving wine and beer will be available. Dinner will be served at 7:00 pm with the program following.

Dinner will be a choice of marinated and grilled filet mignon served medium with Béarnaise sauce, or baked stuffed shrimp (6) with fresh thyme and lemon garnish. Side vegetables will be piped whipped potatoes with cheddar and chives, and crisp pencil thin asparagus with lemon zest. Dessert will be chocolate mint pie. Spouses and guests are cordially invited. Please RSVP your entrée preferences using the attached form to Dr. Mei Chen by April 25th with a check payable to The Citadel, Sigma Xi. Dinner is $25 per person. For more information please email Dr. Chen (mei.chen@citadel.edu) or call her (953-7896).

Parking Directions for the Citadel

Coward Hall is next to Indian Hill, highest point in Charleston, which has a water tower on it. If you drive through the main gate (Moultrie Street), go straight past the Parade Grounds (alias Summerall Field) on your right, and then pass Law Barracks and Watts Barracks, also on your right. When you come to a T intersection, turn right. After you go completely behind Watts Barracks, Coward Hall is on your right. You can park in this area. The Riverview Room is in the part of the building that you see and faces the Ashley River. An elevator is available on the opposite side of the building. A campus map is available at <http://citadel.edu/r3/about/map/parking1.shtml>
